1) TRAINING TIPS FOR APRT. The APRT is a high intensity physical fitness evaluation. It is designed to test your aerobic and anaerobic fitness. Training tips for the APRT can be found here

2) DOCTOR'S WAIVER. To be eligible for the APRT, Applicants must properly complete the attached Doctor's Waiver for the APRT. The waiver can also be found here. Please note that the signed waiver will be valid for one-year from the date of issuance.

3) SELF-SCHEDULE APRT. You may self-schedule an APRT date in the "Application Status" section of your online profile found here. Please note that the APRT dates fill up fast. Additional dates will be released as the need arises. If you are not able to attend one of the available APRTs you may check back at a later date, however, you are advised that you are NOT guaranteed a slot, and by postponing you may never get the opportunity to take an APRT.
NOTE: If you are unable to attend your scheduled APRT you MUST un-schedule yourself ASAP so that the slot can become available. If you choose not to show up for an APRT that you were scheduled for and failed to un-schedule yourself, you may be preventing yourself from being considered for the Class.

You may attempt to reschedule yourself at any time, however you are not guaranteed a slot.

4) APRT ATTIRE AND POLICIES.
Dress Code: Professional Athletic attire is required for the Applicant Physical Requirement Test (Minimum, Short Sleeve Shirt and Shorts covering to mid-thigh, No offensive material, No Tank Tops, No Cut Off Sleeves, No Halter Tops)
Jewelry: Applicants are prohibited from wearing ear, nose, tongue and facial piercings/rings. However, Female applicants may wear one symmetrical set of ear rings, not extending below the earlobe.
Bags/Electronics: Applicants are prohibited for bringing in any bags (i.e.
