

Sherri Conner is the Supervisor of the Subdivision and Zoning Review Section for the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission and has over 15 years of professional experience in land planning and development; including engineering, design, review, and project leadership and coordination; with a degree in Technical Management.