

The Office of Community Relations appreciates the hard work and efforts of the Department of Public Works and Transportation. They are on the front lines every day keeping roads paved in the summer and removing the snow in the winter.

In celebration of National Hydration Day, Eric Turner (OCR) and LaToya Crump (OCR) gave out sun tan lotion, sunglasses, towels, and cold bottled water to keep the staff of DPW&T hydrated.